Some of us try to listen but get distracted.

Some seeds fell on the path. Birds ate it.

Some fell among weeds which choked them as they grew.

Our stuff becomes too important and Jesus gets squeezed out.

If people make fun of us we might say we don't believe.

Some fell on gravel, started to grow but then died in the sun.

Some fell on good soil. They grew and multiplied.

Some listen, understand and tell everyone else about Jesus.

Use a paper plate to tell the parable of the sower. Start by copying the words onto the outer rims of the plate.
