Last week we learnt how Joseph's brothers were so angry with him that they wanted to kill him. However, they decided instead to sell him as a slave to some Egyptians. Today we'll see that he was bought by Potiphar, who worked for the Pharaoh. Potiphar's wife found him attractive and wanted him to sleep with her. Joseph said no and she grabbed his cloak and accused him of attacking her. Potiphar had him arrested and put in prison. Let's see what else happened.

Video: Story of Joseph (10.00-12.29)

Joseph's gift of understanding dreams was used by God to help the baker and the butler so that was good. But how do you think Joseph felt about being in prison and wrongly accused? Have any of you been in trouble for something you didn't do? This song is all about God being with us when we are going through difficult times. Never give up
